

The ways to enjoy Baima Snow-Mountain Area

by Hirose Toshimichi

What's this?

Let's give a name to this flower

Different stones and geology

Both the people and the saddle are rare to visitor

You can find stories from local people's looks

Nice to meet you again!

The best experience!

The first glance of the base camp

Beautiful scenes

Oh, herdsman's home!

Yak! The most famous animal here

To “see” the things invisible through things visible

Visible

landscape
things happening
now
videos and books

Invisible

life and culture ecology things happened
things will happen

Rotten wood is home for living things, but also may be found by enemy

Who did it?

Fresh “Fried Shrimp”

Who lives here ?

Signs left by someone

Tree's Cradle

Thunder!

It is only a stone?
No! there is stone climbing

It is not only food for golden monkey

There is universal message from this moss

This is not a fallen tree

Can you SEE the Glacier?

Visitors always found it interesting from local people's lifestyle
